

Presentation Rubric

Grade	Content	Preparedness*	Responses to Questions	Time management†
A+	Presents an outstandingly detailed overview of the author, work, and time of writing.	Sections of presentation flow well together, presentation feels rehearsed and comfortable. Student speaks directly to their peers.	Has a wealth of background knowledge and can answer questions from peers or refer them to additional sources.	Presentation is between 4.5 and 5.5 minutes.
A	Presents a thorough overview of the author, work, and time of writing.	Sections of presentation flow well together, presentation feels rehearsed. Student speaks directly to their peers.	Has a wealth of background knowledge and can answer questions from peers or refer them to additional sources.	Presentation is between 4.5 and 5.5 minutes.
A-	Presents a thorough overview of the author, work, and gives limited information about the time of writing.	Sections of presentation flow well together, presentation feels rehearsed. Student mostly speaks to their peers.	Has background knowledge and can answer questions from peers or refer them to additional sources.	Presentation is between 4.5 and 5.5 minutes.
B+	Presents an adequate overview of the author, work, and time of writing.	Presentation feels rehearsed. Student mostly speaks to their peers.	Has background knowledge and can answer questions from peers.	Presentation is between 4 and 6 minutes.
B	Presents an adequate overview of the author, work, and nothing about the time period of writing.	Presentation feels rehearsed. Student speaks sometimes to their peers.	Has background knowledge and can answer questions from peers.	Presentation is between 4 and 6 minutes.
B-	Presents adequate overview of the author, some information about the work, and nothing about the time period of writing.	Presentation feels rehearsed.	Can answer some of the questions from peers, but not all.	Presentation is between 4 and 6 minutes.
C+	Presents sparse overview of the author, some information about the work, and nothing about the time period of writing.	Presentation does not feel rehearsed.	Can answer some of the questions from peers, but not all.	Presentation is between 3 and 7 minutes.
C	Presents sparse overview of the author, no information about the work, and no information about the time period of writing.	Presentation does not feel rehearsed.	Cannot answer any questions from peers.	Presentation is between 3 and 7 minutes.
C-	Presents the bare-bones minimum about the author, and no other contextual information.	Presentation does not feel rehearsed.	Cannot answer any questions from peers.	Presentation is between 3 and 7 minutes.
Grade not applicable	Presents basically no correct information.	Presentation does not feel rehearsed.	Cannot answer any questions from peers.	Presentation is under 3 minutes or over 7 minutes.

*You may read from a script.

†Time management does not include Q&A part.